River City Ten-Miler
Official Entry Form

Bib # _____

The River City Ten-Miler is a historical event which was a very popular running race in the early nineties in Austin, Texas and was last run in 1994. The race is known for its lightening fast course, beautiful route, and personal records. The route starts in north Austin and travels down the beautiful Shoal Creek neighborhood, then down the fun hills of Lamar Boulevard and finishes at the scenic Auditorium Shores at Town Lake. The race will take place on March 19, 2006 and will benefit the Austin-based Center for Child Protection, an accredited child advocacy center that serves abused children in Travis County.
